

Table of Contents

Introduction. The Historical Baggage of Germany's Guilt Towards Poland	11
 PART I . German Crimes in Poland During the Second World War	23
Genocide	25
Cities Alive and Dead	35
The Bloody Sacrifice of the September Heroes	54
The Fate of Prisoners of War	65
The 'Pacification' of Villages	72
German Special Operations, Mass Executions	82
The Persecution and Extermination of the Jewish Population, and the Bloody Repression of Poles Rescuing Jews	115
The Extermination of Children	131
The Germanization of Children	143
Population Removals	150
German Death Camps	167
The Fate of Forced Laborers	199
Destruction and Plunder: Third Reich Policy Towards the Occupied Polish Territories	220
 PART II. Covering Up the Crimes	241
Distorting the Past, Ignoring the Crimes	243
A Judiciary Beyond the Law and Doctors of Infamy	258
The Wehrmacht as a Criminal Organization	265
Politicians, the Media, and Industry Under the Banner of the Swastika	273
German Historical Policy	281
The Question of Reparations for Poland	295
The Retention of Stolen Polish Cultural Assets	306

PART III. Current German Policy Towards Poland	313
The Politics of Influence	315
German Attempts to Make a Vassal of Poland	323
Dreams of Mitteleuropa	337
Germany – A Global Empire?	242
The German Policy of Contempt	347
Germany vis-à-vis the Law and Justice Government	361
 Future Prospects as Neighbors	 369
 Abbreviations	 375
 Bibliography	 377